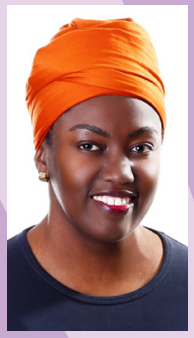
CONFERENCE SPEAKERS



Revd Dr Kate Coleman

Revd Dr Kate Coleman is founding director of Next Leadership. She has nearly 30 years of leadership experience in the church, charity and voluntary sectors and is a mentor and coach to leaders. Kate recently completed a term as Chair of the Evangelical Alliance Council (2012-2014), is a former president of the Baptist Union of Great Britain (2006-2007), and a Baptist Minister. A popular speaker and lecturer, Kate has gained a reputation as a visionary and an inspiration to many. She is a strategic advisor who mentors, coaches and supports leaders and organisations locally, nationally and internationally. Her network extends across all sectors and church denominations. Kate is author of 7 Deadly Sins of Women in Leadership. Her media contributions include the mainstream press, radio and TV. Kate is a Certified Stakeholder Centered Coach.

Revd Jenny Impey

Jenny Impey was born in Leicester and is currently Chair of the London District of the Methodist Church, having responsibility for the Methodist churches and ministers south of the river. After gaining a BSc and PGCE at university she trained for ministry at Wesley House in Cambridge, gaining an MA in theology, then serving in the Thames Valley, Wimbledon and Berkhamsted circuits. Key to her ministerial formation was a time in South Africa in 1990 which shaped her passion for cross cultural ministry and love of ministry in this Global City. She has also spent time in Sri Lanka, Korea, Hong Kong and Ghana.

Jenny has held various high profile roles within Methodism, many involving the formation of new ministers and leading Retreats. She has been Chair of Trustees at Methodist Central Hall Westminster. In recent years she has developed a love of sailing and spent her recent sabbatical sailing a yacht around Britain. Her dream would be to sail around the world, engaging in conversation about life and faith with those she meets on the journey.
