A Chick-fil-A team come back to share more insights on how building business on a foundation of Christian principles can lead to success in the marketplace. We will hear a presentation from Chick-fil-A on their Second Mile Service concept, that has seen them voted the 2nd best company in the USA for customer service, and created a loyal, passionate customer base they refer to as Raving Fans. Following this we will have a panel discussion and Q&As on how Christian principles and Christian integrity should be applied in the workplace, and how to ensure we don't compromise on issues of honesty within businesses.
