

SPEAKERS

Revd Peter Edwards

Peter has been an ordained Methodist minister for 35 years and for the last six has headed up healing ministry at MCHW. He is the author of “The Healing Touch of God” and has also co-written an online course called “Healing Ministry Explored”, available on the church website. Living in Sheffield, Peter has worked with many churches and circuits, particularly in the north of England, in setting up healing ministry, and in this he has been assisted by his wife Rita.

Jonathan Clark

Jonathan Clark, Director for Premier Lifeline, is a qualified mental health social worker specialising in suicide and self-harm. As a founding member of the Christian Helplines Association, Jonathan has a keen interest in leading people into healing, wholeness and freedom. He has been a church minister. He is married to Miggs and they have two adult children.

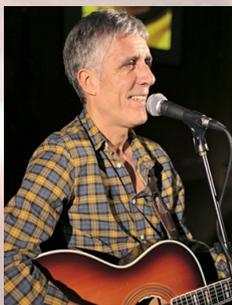

Alison Bryan

Following being healed of M.E by the Lord at Spring Harvest in 1996, Alison has been involved in prayer ministry, leading the prayer team at Christchurch Methodist/URC in Hertfordshire, but also serving on the prayer team at MCHW. Over the years the Lord has been drawing Alison into the area of inner healing and deliverance and she has been delivering training in this area for the MCHW and Premier Lifeline prayer teams. She is married to Robert with an adopted daughter Kirstie.

Ollie McEwen

Born in The Gambia to Muslim parents, Ollie came to London after the death of her father. A life-changing and visionary experience, in which she encountered Christ led her to various Pentecostal churches and then a call to Methodism. As well as being PA to Revd. Dr. Martyn Atkins, Ollie works as the Church Administrator. She leads Westminster Women’s Outreach and is a member of the healing prayer team and an accredited Local Preacher. Ollie is married to Lycias and they have four children and four grandchildren.

WORSHIP LEADER: DAVE BILBROUGH

Having become a Christian in 1971, Dave found that, “Many of the hymns and songs used language and terminology I couldn’t relate to”. He picked up his guitar and began singing and writing songs of worship in a contemporary style. Seeing the importance of the worship ministry, the leadership in his home church encouraged and developed Dave in his calling, and gave Dave “the freedom to make mistakes”. By the age of 19 he had led worship at the Royal Albert Hall, London.

Dave brings experience, innovation and the prophetic into the worship arena.
